

Ambassador Volunteer Position Description

Job Description

As a nonprofit that works with the homeless population, Project PLASE regularly attends resource fairs to make individuals experiencing homelessness aware of the services we provide. Additionally, we attend fairs to recruit volunteers. Project PLASE is seeking a volunteer to assist us in increasing awareness of our organization among the homeless population and volunteers.

Benefits

- Connect people experiencing homelessness to the resources they need
- Help a local nonprofit achieve its mission of serving Baltimore's most vulnerable homeless population
- Gain extensive knowledge about a local nonprofit and the Baltimore population experiencing homelessness

Duties and Expectations

- Be dependable and punctual
- Increase own knowledge and understanding of Project PLASE and homelessness in Baltimore
- Represent Project PLASE with a partner at a variety of resource fairs
- Relay accurate information to individuals seeking resources
- Have access to a method of transportation to get to various destinations around Baltimore
- Must comply with all Project PLASE Volunteer Policies and Procedures

Availability: varies; dependant on schedules of resource fairs
