

Grants Research Volunteer Position Description

Job Description

Project PLASE is seeking a volunteer to research potential grant funding sources. This individual would work closely with the Director of Development to search for grants which could support PLASE's programs to provide housing, case management, and supportive services for Baltimore's most vulnerable homeless population.

Benefits

- Gain experience in grant research in nonprofit development
- Work collaboratively on multiple projects that would have a meaningful impact on Project PLASE's ability to carry out our mission
- Help a local nonprofit achieve its mission of serving Baltimore's most vulnerable homeless population

Duties and Expectations

- Must have computer skills to conduct internet research and maintain an accurate record of findings
- Learn PLASE's mission and programs to identify which grants would be applicable and would best serve our clients
- Research background and supportive material to assist application preparation
- Must comply with all Project PLASE Volunteer Policies and Procedures
