

Volunteer Purse Sorter Position Description

Job Description

Project PLASE participates in various fairs throughout Baltimore with our popular booth “Purses for PLASE.” We receive numerous purse donations throughout the year which we resell, returning 100% of the profit to support our organization. Not only is this one of our most enjoyable and worthwhile fundraisers, but we also increase awareness of Project PLASE’s mission to end homelessness through rehabilitating and empowering the whole person. Project PLASE is seeking volunteers to help us prepare for this event by sorting through our purse donations to appraise their value.

Benefits

- Organize and design a positive shopping experience for individuals who visit our booth
- Play an integral role in a fundraiser that raises over $1,500 for Project PLASE per event

Duties and Expectations

- Process the incoming purse donations by assessing quality and condition to accurately price them
- Organize the purses in bins according to color
- Must comply with all Project PLASE Volunteer Policies and Procedures

Availability: Monday-Friday, during regular business hours or in the early evening
